

COMPOUND NOUNS

Compound nouns are usually formed from two nouns.
Though they can be formed from a verb + noun.

Compound Noun Riddles

Directions: Read the clues and write the compound noun on the line.

1. I'm a place where you go to learn and grow, but also make friends and have fun. You may start as a freshman, but leave as a senior. What am I?

2. I come once a year, and everyone celebrates me. I bring joy and gifts, and mark the passage of time. What am I?

3. I rumble and shake, causing destruction in my wake. I come without warning, and can strike at any moment. What am I?

4. I'm a path for walking, but not on grass or sand. I'm made of concrete, and can be found in cities and towns. What am I?

5. I'm used to tame unruly locks, and make hair look neat and smooth. I have bristles and a handle, and can be found in every bathroom. What am I?
