

CONCRETE NOUNS

A concrete noun is able to be sensed by touch, sound, smell, sight, or hearing. It is a tangible object, person, or place.

Sentence Search

Directions: Underline the concrete nouns in each sentence.

1. She has a passion for music, which brings her happiness.
2. The city has a rich history, reflected in its architecture.
3. He has a strong desire for success, seen in his well-written essays.
4. The novel explores themes of love and loss.
5. The artist's creativity is evident in her paintings.
6. The athlete has great strength and speed.
7. The poem expresses the author's emotions and thoughts.
8. The company is built on hard work and determination.
9. The river's beauty attracts many tourists to the area.
10. Her leadership skills have earned her respect from her team.
11. The symphony's complexity showcases the talent of the musicians.
12. The book provides a glimpse into the author's imagination.