

Helping VERBS

Helping verbs are auxiliary verbs that help the main verb express its tense, mood, or voice. Examples: be, do, have

Word Bank

- is
- might
- will
- would
- should
- have
- does
- can
- could
- was

Fill in the Blank

Directions: Use the word bank to fill in the correct helping verb for each sentence. Use each helping verb twice.

1. She _____ feeling better after a nap.
2. We _____ read the same book twice now.
3. The cat _____ sleep on the couch.
4. We _____ have a picnic since the weather is nice.
5. She _____ sing better than most people.
6. He _____ write a story if he has time.
7. He _____ not like eating popcorn.
8. The baby _____ crying.
9. She _____ study for her test.
10. They _____ go to the movies tomorrow.