

COUNTABLE
NOUNS

UNCOUNTABLE
NOUNS

Countable nouns are able to be physically counted one-by-one. Uncountable nouns often have no plural form and aren't individually counted.

Finish the Sentence

Directions: Finish each sentence with the correct countable or uncountable noun.

1. Can you please pass me a _____ of sugar for my coffee? (Uncountable noun)
2. I have _____ books on my bookshelf. (Countable noun)
3. There's not enough _____ in the pool. (Uncountable noun)
4. I need to buy _____ for my garden. (Countable noun)
5. Do you have any _____ of paper? (Countable noun)
6. Can you smell the _____ in the air? (Uncountable noun)
7. I saw _____ of ducks swimming in the lake. (Countable noun)
8. She likes to drink _____ before bed. (Uncountable noun)
9. The store is selling _____ for a good price. (Countable noun)
10. Let's listen to some _____ while we drive. (Uncountable noun)