

Helping VERBS

Helping verbs are auxiliary verbs that help the main verb express its tense, mood, or voice. Examples: be, do, have

Sentence Search

Directions: Underline the helping verbs in each sentence.

1. She is singing a song.
2. We should eat breakfast before our fieldtrip.
3. I have been studying for my test.
4. He has been reading a book.
5. We are having a picnic.
6. They will be arriving soon.
7. She can dance gracefully.
8. He had been working on a project.
9. The cat was sleeping on the couch.
10. They are going to the movies.
11. She should pass the test.
12. He has finished his homework.

