

Conjugating VERBS

Conjugation is when a verb matches the subject and tense. It tells the reader who is doing something/being and when.

There are six "persons" or subjects when conjugating.

Color the Persons

