

Possessive ADJECTIVES

Possessive adjectives are used to show possession or ownership of a noun. The most common possessive adjectives are my, your, his, her, its, our, and their. Example - My dog likes to play fetch with me.

Directions: Circle the correct possessive adjective that matches the first sentence.

1. Lilah has two good friends. _____ friends are funny.

her your its our my

2. The lead singer also plays guitar. _____ guitar is electric red.

their its our his my

3. I have three birthday balloons. _____ balloons are fun to blow up.

their its our his my

4. My brother and I have a pack of new pencils. _____ pencils are sharp.

their its your our her

5. You have a shiny pair of shoes. _____ shoes are brand new!

their his your my our

6. It starts to rain but we have an umbrella. _____ umbrella is helpful in the storm.

their his your my our