

Possessive ADJECTIVES

Possessive adjectives are used to show possession or ownership of a noun. The most common possessive adjectives are my, your, his, her, its, our, and their. Example - My dog likes to play fetch with me.

Directions: Write the correct possessive adjective in the blank.
Be sure it matches the sentence before it.

her his our your my its their

1. Mia has a lovely garden. _____ garden is full of colorful flowers.
2. Alex has a new skateboard. _____ skateboard is red and black.
3. The teacher gave the students a challenging assignment. _____ assignment required a lot of research.
4. My family has a cozy home. _____ home has a big backyard.
5. The dog barked at the mailman. _____ bark was loud and fierce.
6. The children played with the colorful toys. _____ toys were fun to play with.
7. I read a book with an interesting plot. _____ plot had many twists.
8. The restaurant served us delicious food. _____ food was fresh.
9. The school had a strict dress code. _____ dress code required students to wear uniforms.
10. The artist painted a beautiful landscape. _____ landscape included mountains and a lake.