

Compound ADJECTIVES

Compound adjectives are made up of two or more words that modify a noun and are usually hyphenated. These compound words describe the noun.

Compound Adjective ID

Directions: Underline or highlight the compound adjective in each sentence.

1. The red-haired boy had a mischievous grin on his face.
2. The fast-moving car swerved to avoid the pothole.
3. The snow-covered mountain peaks were a breathtaking sight.
4. The six-year-old girl was already a talented singer.
5. The warm-hearted woman welcomed us with open arms.
6. The long-distance runner had incredible endurance.
7. The blue-eyed baby giggled and cooed in her mother's arms.
8. The well-behaved dog sat obediently at his owner's feet.
9. The high-pitched sound of the fire alarm made our ears hurt.
10. The quick-witted boy always had a clever response.
11. The watermelon-flavored candy was a big hit at the party.
12. The three-legged dog chased the frisbee with excitement.
13. The snow-covered mountain looked majestic in the winter sun.
14. The baby's high-pitched cry woke up the entire household.

