

Name: _____

Black History Month Matching Activity

Match the name of the important historical figure with the given descriptions.

Martin Luther King Jr.

American activist known as the “mother of the civil rights movement” and her pivotal role in the Montgomery bus boycott

Harriet Tubman

Abolitionist and social activist; former slave known for helping others escape to freedom through the Underground Railroad

Louis Armstrong

American minister and activist; one of the most prominent leaders of the civil rights movement and known for his famous “I Have a Dream” speech

Jackie Robinson

First African American woman to hold a pilot license

Mae Jemison

One of the most influential figures in jazz music history

Bessie Coleman

First African American to play Major League Baseball in the modern era

Rosa Parks

Engineer, physician, and former astronaut; First African-American female to travel to space

Frederick Douglass

Famous social reformer, abolitionist, writer in the 19th century; Known as the “father of the abolitionist movement”

Name: _____

Black History Month

Matching Activity Answer Key

Match the name of the important historical figure with the given descriptions.

Martin Luther King Jr.	American activist known as the “mother of the civil rights movement” and her pivotal role in the Montgomery bus boycott
Harriet Tubman	Abolitionist and social activist; former slave known for helping others escape to freedom through the Underground Railroad
Louis Armstrong	American minister and activist; one of the most prominent leaders of the civil rights movement and known for his famous “I Have a Dream” speech
Jackie Robinson	First African-American woman to hold a pilot license
Mae Jemison	One of the most influential figures in jazz music history
Bessie Coleman	First African American to play Major League Baseball in the modern era
Rosa Parks	Engineer, physician, and former astronaut; First African-American female to travel to space
Frederick Douglass	Famous social reformer, abolitionist, writer in the 19th century; Known as the “father of the abolitionist movement”