

Louis Armstrong Quotes

"Seems to me, it aint the world that's so bad but what we're doin' to it. And all I'm saying is, see, what a wonderful world it would be if only we'd give it a chance. Love baby, love. That's the secret..."

"Don't do nothing halfway, else you find yourself dropping more than can be picked up."

"What we play is life."

"If I don't practice for a day, I know it. If I don't practice for two days, the critics know it. And if I don't practice for three days, the public knows it."

"Each man has his own music bubbling up inside him."

"The best I can do is stay happy."

"Jazz is played from the heart. You can even live by it. Always love it."

"You got to love to be able to play"

"There is no such thing as 'on the way out' as long as you are still doing something interesting and good; you're in the business because you're breathing."

"My life has always been my music, it's always come first, but the music ain't worth nothing if you can't lay it on the public. The main thing is to live for that audience, 'cause what you're there for is to please the people."
