

Name: _____

Date: _____

Making Predictions: Social Situations

Directions: It's always important to think about what might happen next. This is called predicting and it is an essential skill for all people. Read each scenario below and predict what you think might happen next based on the situation. Explain your predictions. Reread your responses for clarity.

Scenario 1: You see your friend sitting alone on the playground during recess. What do you think will happen if you go over and talk to them?

Scenario 2: Your classmate is feeling sad because they lost their favorite toy. What do you think will happen if you help them look for it?

Scenario 3: Your friend is sharing their toys with you and playing nicely. What do you think will happen if you share your toys too?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Making Predictions: School

Directions: It's always important to think about what might happen next. This is called predicting and it is an essential skill for all people. Read each scenario below and predict what you think might happen next based on the situation. Explain your predictions. Reread your responses for clarity.

Scenario 1: You forgot to do your homework and decide to ask the teacher for an extension. What do you think will happen?

Scenario 2: You help your classmates with their group project and work together to finish it on time. What do you think will happen when you present it to the class?

Scenario 3: You are always respectful to your school bus driver and classmates. What do you think will happen in your school bus community?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Making Predictions: Safety

Directions: It's always important to think about what might happen next. This is called predicting and it is an essential skill for all people. Read each scenario below and predict what you think might happen next based on the situation. Explain your predictions. Reread your responses for clarity.

Scenario 1: Your friend wants to climb a tall tree without any safety gear. What do you think might happen, and how can you stay safe?

Scenario 2: You notice a toy left on the stairs, and your younger sibling is playing nearby. What might happen if you don't pick up the toy?

Scenario 3: You see a sign that says "Danger: Deep Water" at a pond. What do you think will happen if someone goes swimming, and how can they stay safe?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Making Predictions: World Issues

Directions: It's always important to think about what might happen next. This is called predicting and it is an essential skill for all people. Read each scenario below and predict what you think might happen next based on the situation. Explain your predictions. Reread your responses for clarity.

Scenario 1: Imagine there's a lot of litter in your local park. What might happen if people keep littering, and how can you help keep the park clean?

Scenario 2: Think about people in need of food and clean water. What could happen if they don't receive help, and how can you contribute to providing assistance?

Scenario 3: Consider the importance of planting trees to combat climate change. What might happen if people don't take action, and how can you be involved in tree-planting projects?
