

THE HISTORY OF CHINESE FANS

ReadingVine

HOW ARE FANS USED?

- as a fashion accessory
- for cooling off on hot days
- as art

WHAT ARE THEY MADE OF?

- bamboo
- paper
- silk

HOW ELSE CAN THEY BE USED?

Fans can be used to display pictures and tell stories.

This fan has peacocks. In China, peacocks mean beauty and power.

This fan has a cherry blossom.
In China, cherry blossoms
represent beauty and women.

This fan has a story. This is another way to decorate a fan.

The background is a light blue rounded rectangle with a green border. It is filled with colorful confetti pieces in shades of purple, blue, yellow, orange, and red. The text "GREAT WORK!" is centered in a bold, purple, sans-serif font with a slight drop shadow.

GREAT WORK!

The ReadingVine logo is located at the bottom center. It consists of the text "ReadingVine" in a dark blue, sans-serif font, with a small green leaf icon above the letter 'i'. The logo is set against a white rounded rectangular background.

ReadingVine