Cinquain Poet: Adelaide Crapsey

Directions: Cinquains were created by a woman named Adelaide Crapsey. Cinquains have 5 lines. There are 2 syllables in the first line, 4 syllables in the second, 6 syllables in the third, 8 syllables in the fourth line, and only 2 syllables in the last line. Read the cinquain below and answer the questions.

Cinquain: "November Night"

Listen...

With faint dry sound,

Like steps of passing ghosts,

The leaves, frost-crisp'd, break from the trees

And fall.

1. Draw an image inspired by the cinquain.

2. What is the mood (feeling) of this poem? Which words create the mood?
