POETRY TYPES: What is Concrete Poetry?

Concrete poetry is a type of poetry where the words are arranged to create a picture. This picture always relates to the poem's theme. Here's an example:

up
bright
silvery
crescent
moon
radiant
glowing lunar
far

Directions:

Choose a simple object (start, tree, heart, etc.)

Write down a few words or phrases that describe that object.

Draw that object below.

Fill your drawing with the words you wrote down. Arrange them in an artistic and creative way.
