Directions:

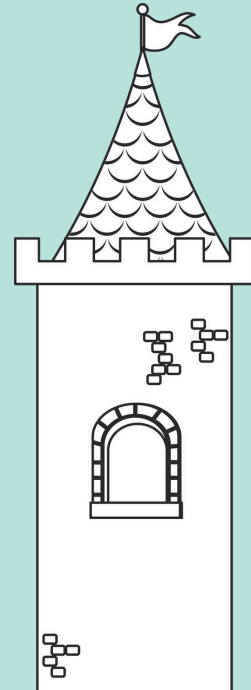

Read the poem below and underline the end rhyme words in each stanza. Then, list the rhyming words for each stanza in the table provided.

A Kingdom of Crystal

*Upon a hill where clouds embrace,
Stands a castle, time can't trace.
Walls of crystal, spires of light,
Glimmer in the velvet night.*

*Mystic doors of starlit gold,
Guard the secrets, legends told.
In its halls, where echoes sing,
Whispers of an ancient king.*

*Moonlit gardens softly bloom,
Casting shadows, sweet perfume.
Where the dreams and wishes flow,
In the magic's gentle glow.*
