POETRY: What is Personification?

Personification is when human characteristics are given to objects or non-human things, like animals.

Directions:

Read each sentence and circle the object that is being personified.

The stars danced in the night sky.

The sun smiled down on the earth.

The raindrops danced on the roof.

The leaves whisper secrets to each other.

The flag waved goodbye as I walked away.

The old house groaned and creaked in the storm.

Thunder grumbles angrily in the sky.
