

Name _____

Combining Sentences Using Prepositions

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.2.1.A, 3.1.B

Directions:

Let's discover how prepositions and their phrases can make sentences and thoughts more precise. Sometimes one or more sentence can be combined to express a more clear point. In this exercise, combine the two sentences using prepositional phrases. The first one has been done for you as an example.

- 1. I bought a new dress. I will wear it to the party tomorrow.

I bought a new dress for the party tomorrow.

2. He left the house. He didn't say goodbye before he left.

3. She is reading a book. The book is about space exploration.

4. We walked to the park. We took our dog with us.

5. Fiona was crying. She was watching a sad movie.

6. The children are excited. They are going on a vacation.

7. Gavin couldn't sleep. The noise outside was very loud.

8. My grandparents arrived late. They were stuck in traffic.

9. I missed the bus. I slept in too late.

10. We stayed home. There is a snow storm outside.

