

Name _____

Fill In the Blank: Objects of Prepositions

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.2.1.A, 3.1.B

Directions:

Remember that the object of a preposition is the noun or pronoun that comes after a preposition and tells us what or whom the preposition is talking about.

Below, fill in the blanks with nouns or pronouns that function as objects of prepositions. Be as creative as you'd like!

1. The bright sun shines high in the _____.
2. The fluffy cat curled up on the _____.
3. The small red ball bounced across the _____.
4. At the zoo, the gigantic elephant splashed water with its _____.
5. Two brave knights rode their horses into the _____.
6. A bright rainbow appeared after the _____.
7. The quiet library was full of _____.
8. The busy bees buzzed around the _____.
9. The soft sand felt warm between my _____.
10. A quiet river flowed gently through the _____.