

Name _____

Identifying Prepositions

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.2.1.A, 3.1.B

Directions:

Each of the sentences below contain at least one preposition. Some have only one, and some have two. Underline each preposition that you find. The first one has been done for you as an example.

1. We sat beside each other at the concert.
2. The car drove through the tunnel.
3. Carl put the book on the shelf by the window.
4. My father walked towards the door.
5. The meeting has been scheduled for tomorrow.
6. The keys are under the couch cushions.
7. She walked along the beach at sunset.
8. The little boy is hiding behind the tree.
9. The book fell off the table onto the floor.
10. The birthday gift is for you.

