In the Park

In the park, the kids play,
Under the sun, they laugh all day.
On the swings, they soar so high,
Around the trees, they run and fly.

By the pond, the ducks swim here,
Through the grass, we shout and cheer.
Behind the bench, a squirrel darts,
Above the flowers, a butterfly departs.

With my friends, we share a snack,
Across the path, we run back.
In the park, so much to see,
Happy moments, just you and me!
