

Name _____

Identifying Conjunctions

Directions:

Each of the sentences below contain at least one conjunction. Some have only one, and some have two. Underline each conjunction that you find. The first one has been done for you as an example.

1. The birthday gift is for you but I also got you a card.
2. We sat beside each other while celebrating the special occasion.
3. My sister wrapped the gift and tied it with a ribbon.
4. She made cupcakes and brought them to the party.
5. We can open presents or wait until everyone arrives.
6. He gave her a bouquet and chocolates because it was her birthday.
7. They played music while we danced at the party.
8. I blew out my candles and made a wish.
9. I write thank you cards so my friends know I'm grateful.
10. The boy laughed with glee when he saw his present.