Amazing Alliteration

Let's build our understanding of alliteration together.

What is Alliteration?

Alliteration is when two or more words in a sentence start with the same sound or letter.

Act as a detective to read, hear, and find the repeating sounds in a sentence or phrase.

Example: "Silly Sally swiftly shooed seven silly sheep."

Directions: Read and underline the alliterative words in these phrases:

Sally sells seashells by the seashore.

Fred's furry ferret flips five forks.

Tiny Tim tiptoes through tall tulips.

---

Directions: Cross out the sentence that does not have alliteration.

Sharon saves for her piggy bank.

Boring birds behave badly.

Happy Henry helps hungry hippos.

Directions: Fill in the alliterative phrases.
