Onomatopoeia Story Challenge

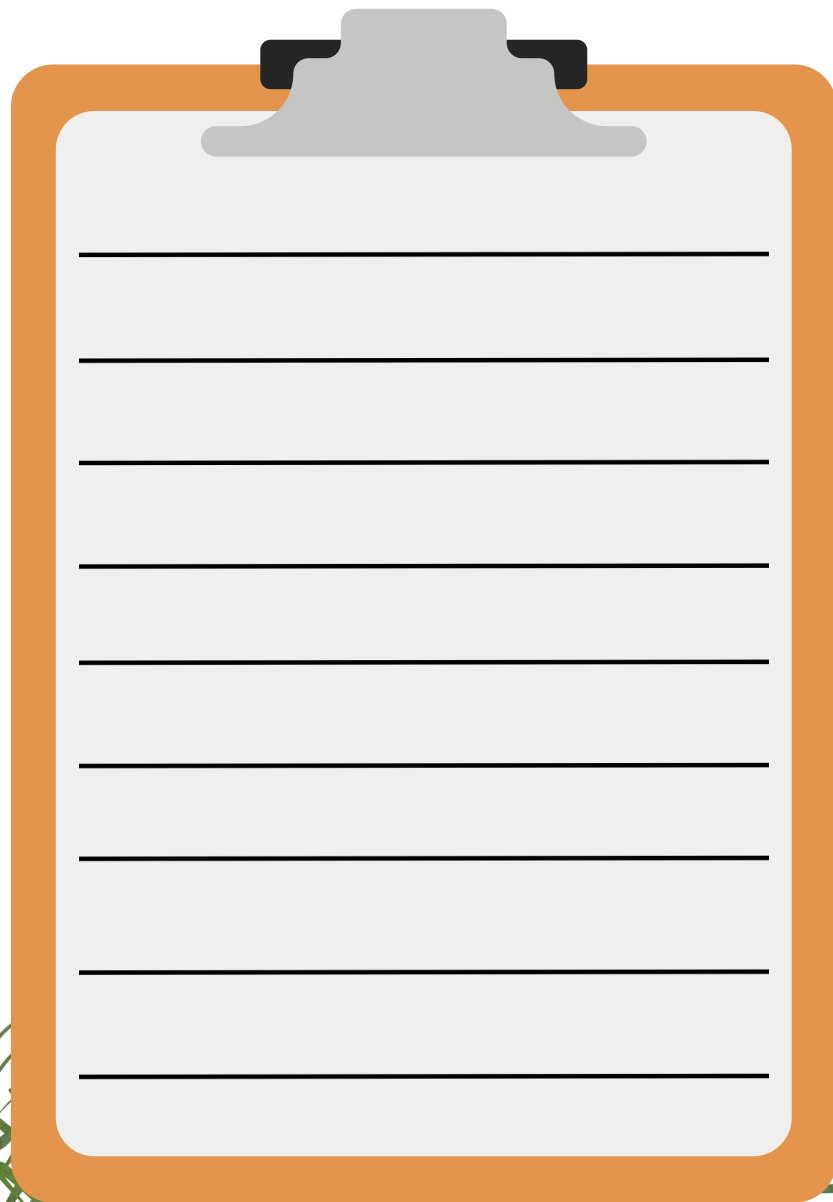

Directions: Hey there, sound seekers! Get ready to bring your stories to life with amazing sounds. Your challenge today is to write a short, exciting story based on one of the following scenarios. Be sure to include at least three different onomatopoeic words (words that sound like the action) in your story!

Story Starters (Choose One):

The Day I Found a Secret Treasure in the Forest

My Crazy Day at the Stadium

The Storm That Shook the Whole Town

A large orange clipboard with a silver clip at the top, containing a white sheet of lined paper for writing. The clipboard is decorated with green fern-like plants at the bottom corners.
