

Name _____

Does It Make Sense?

Directions: Read the following sentences. If the sentence makes sense as an example of personification, write “Yes” on the line next to it. If it doesn’t, write “No.”

1. The angry clouds marched across the sky. _____
2. The pencil sang a lullaby to the eraser. _____
3. The stars winked at us from the night sky. _____
4. The chair whistled while it waited patiently for someone to sit on it. _____
5. Beneath the surface of the water, the pebbles massaged my feet. _____
6. The donuts begged me to eat them. _____
7. The Christmas tree dove into the pool. _____
8. The baseball groaned as it rolled across the dirt. _____

Directions: The sentences below are supposed to use personification, but they don’t make sense! Rewrite them to include better personification.

1. The car ate the road.
• Rewrite: _____
2. The door ran away.
• Rewrite: _____