Kindness Story Comprehension

Directions: Read the short story and then answer the comprehension questions.

Cora was playing on the playground when she saw her friend Greyson drop his backpack. The contents of his backpack went everywhere! Cora ran over and said, “I will help you!” She picked up papers and pencils and handed them to Greyson.

“Thank you, Cora! That was very kind.” said Greyson with a big smile.

Later that day, Greyson saw Cora struggling to carry her lunch tray. He remembered how she had helped him. “I will help you!” Greyson said, and he carried her drink to the table.

Cora smiled and said, “Thank you, Greyson! You are a good friend.”
