SEQUENCING A LEPRECHAUN'S DAY

Seamus the Leprechaun wakes up early on St. Patrick's Day. He stretches, puts on his green hat, and polishes his shoes until they shine.

Next, he checks on his pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. "Still here!" he says with a smile.

Then, he plays a little trick on a farmer by hiding his lucky horseshoe behind a big rock. "He'll have to find it later!" Seamus giggles.

After that, Seamus dances a jig in the meadow, twirling and hopping happily.

At the end of the day, he hides his gold in a secret spot and curls up inside a hollow tree for a good night's rest.

Directions: Number the sentences 1-5 to show the correct order of Seamus's day.

___ Seamus plays a trick by hiding a lucky horseshoe.

___ Seamus hides his gold and goes to sleep.

___ Seamus dances a jig in the meadow.
