"CLOVER AND THE EGG" SHORT STORY

Directions: Read the story, paying close attention to your sight words. Underline each sight word you read. Then orally answer the comprehension questions at the bottom of the page.

Clover the Cow was walking in the field by the barn.

She saw an egg on the ground.

"Look! A big egg!" Clover said.

She picked it up to show Sam the Sheep.

What would he say?

"Each egg is special," Sam said.

"We must be careful with it."

"We should take it to the barn," Clover said.

"We can keep it safe there."

Clover and Sam took a ride to the barn on their wagon.

Soon, they reached the barn.

"We will keep the egg safe in here," said Sam.

Clover and Sam smiled.

They were happy to have found an egg.
