

Name _____

"CLOVER AND THE RAINY DAY" SHORT STORY

Directions: Read the story, paying close attention to your sight words. Underline each sight word you read. Then trace the sight words to complete the sentences at the bottom of the page.

Clover the Cow looked at the sky.

"How do you think the weather will be today?"

Clover asked.

Piper the Pig walked by.

"I think it will rain," she said.

Clover said, "Maybe it will not rain much."

"Or maybe it will a lot," said Piper.

Clover looked at the sky again.

"There are so many clouds," she said.

There was a little wind.

Then the first raindrop fell.

Together they watched the rain fall.

SIGHT WORDS

be how not or rain

so there

they will

Finish the sentence with the correct sight word.

It began to rain.

Finish the sentence with the correct sight word.

There were so many clouds.