100TH DAY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Directions: The 100th Day of School is a great time to look back and celebrate all the things you've accomplished so far this school year. Whether it's learning new words, making new friends, or mastering math problems, every accomplishment matters! Think about what you've accomplished in the first 100 days of school. Answer the questions below in complete sentences.

1. What is something you've learned in the first 100 days of school that you're proud of?

2. What is one goal you've reached in the first 100 days?

3. Who has helped you achieve your accomplishments? How did they help you?

4. What was your favorite accomplishment in reading or writing so far? Why?

5. Have you made a new friend in the first 100 days? How did you meet them?

6. What was the most fun project or activity you've done in the first 100 days? Why was it fun?

7. What is one thing you've improved at since the first day of school?

8. What is something you want to accomplish in the next 100 days of school?
